

The May 14, 2014 meeting of the OCAC car club was called to order by President John Gudgeon at 7:00.

Introduced was our new member Dennis Day, also a guest speaker Ron Aiken, Veterans commissioner for Natrona County. Ron is planning a reunion for Vietnam Veterans in downtown Casper sometime in June of 2015 and would like OCAC members to bring their cars and participate in a parade and have a veteran as a passenger. The event is planned to bring veterans together. Estimated dated for the parade is June 4 thru 7, 2014.

The minutes were read and approved (Mike Kennedy 2nd Mike Johnson)

Treasurers Report: $417.33, Checking $1332.92

Birthdays celebrated this month: Chris Hermel, Diane Combs, Stan Goodwin and Chuck Burrows.

Benevolence: Steve Schafer, strep. Rich Blower, breathing problems, Pneumonia

Correspondence: Central Wyoming Fair & Rodeo sent entry form for our car club participation in the parade on Tuesday, July 8, 2014. Be deciding how many cars we would like to put into the parade by the next meeting. We will submit after we hold the July meeting. The parade theme is United we Stand.

Superday 14, Show & Shine Saturday June 28, 2014 at the Lions Park on Carey Ave in Cheyenne, WY. Car show runs from 10am to 4 pm.

Received a thank you card from Jerry Knight. Hope your recovery is very speedy.

Thank you card from Haggerty insurance for our continued business.

Gumbo cookoff is being held at the event center on May 31, 2014 from 10 to 4. Proceeds go to the Trail Center.

Car show progress. Everything is good to go. Could use some help with the parking and cruise volunteers. Any help will be greatly appreciated.

Valve cover track is ready and will be set up at the car show

Ralph Butler found a new trailer for the car club. Things have been transferred over. The plan is to sell the old trailer to recoup a few dollars back to the club.

Discussion for proceeds from the car show: Motion to sponsor a veteran scholarship>>>Phil Nissen, 2nd JohnGardner

Contact Caddy shack for Christmas party reservation: December 13, 2014, Saturday night.

Motion to Adjourn: Ron Potter, 2nd Mike Johnson.