The Kite fly summer picnic was a great success. Lots of good food and good company. Dennis Day brought a remote helicopter (a garage sale find) for its maiden voyage. He did get it up so I would say it was a success. We missed all who were not there.

The next club activity will be the Sunday morning breakfast This month will be at Village Inn Downtown Casper

Friday night dinner this week was at Municipal Golf we had a hamburger menu great fun and lots of good conversation.

It looks like Mike Kennedy went to a Mustang show in Spearfish SD and won a big award. Congratulations to Mike.

Douglas was well attended by OCAC members. Phil & Millie Nissen, Stan & Judy Goodwin, Lyn Haines, Newt Weber, Jerry Barton, Bruce Berst & Tammy Raver, Cindy Chopping, Jessie Henderson, Larry Kloster, Ray Parnell, Mark Milliken, Dennis Day. I hope I didn't miss anyone.

If you go to a car show please let me know so we can report on it for next month.

Wednesday night cruise was fun we cruised up Poplar and took the Garden Creek loop came down to City Park and had Ice cream. It was so nice to just sit in the park and visit, everyone seemed to enjoy it.
