ODDS AND ENDS

First: A number of excursions and events are being planned for the upcoming driving season. Please visit the website or the next meeting for a complete listing of the times and places. Ken Lantta has done an excellent job of putting together a complete listing of these events.

Second: The Science Zone Show-5/58/23-The show will be from 10 AM until 3 PM and best of class will be awarded. The show will be on E. Collins Dr. in Casper. Contact Bruce Berst for details.

Third: OCAC Kite Fly Picnic-6/4/23-PV Park. Bring picnic stuff, games, and kites. The club will supply the fried chicken. It should be a great day, so bring the whole family to Shelter #3 on Begonia in the Valley.

Fourth: Knight Cruisers Car Show-6/10/23- Douglas, WY.

Fifth: Deer Creek Days-6/25/23- Glenrock, WY.

Sixth: It has been decided to move our meeting place for the Wednesday Night Cruises from Rocky Mountain Discount Sports to the parking lot at Interior Solutions. That is the old A&W location. Please come out for the next cruise night.

Seventh: There has also been quite a little interest in the proposed trip to the Rambler Ranch in Colorado. Dennis Day is in charge of the August trip and would like to start getting a head count for possible motel reservations as this will be an overnight trip. Please contact Dennis as soon as possible if you are interested in going.

Eighth: Also, there is a sign up sheet for the WGA 80th Anniversary car show on David St. in August. This show is limited to the first 40 entrants, and it is important that they get a head count. This is a 5 PM to 8 PM show. Please contact Mark Milliken for details.
